About Williamsburg Area Transit Authority (WATA)

WATA is Virginia's only public transit authority. It provides ADA paratransit services as well as roughly 840,000 rides annually to visitors, employees and residents in Williamsburg, Newport News, York, Surry and James City counties.

WATA also provides paratransit services for retirees, older residents and persons with disabilities living near or on its routes.

For more information about WATA and its services, visit www.goWATA.org or call the Authority's main line and dispatch center at (757) 220-5493.
